We, as a school community, understand that:

- ☐ Our whole school community will be committing to building resilience through relationships.
- ☐ Implementing a strengths-based philosophy supports a culture of resilience within our school community.
- ☐ Intentionally providing opportunities for our students, families, and whole school will help to develop skills, tools, and strategies (build competencies) that promote lifelong learning in the school, home, and community.
- ☐ S4 is a 'way' of teaching and learning that connects to school initiatives and fosters a culture and climate that promotes resilience in children and their families which keep our community safe.

What is your vision for S4 in your school community?
